Richmond, Va - University of Richmond redshirt freshman quarterback Joseph Mancuso was named Offensive Player of the Game after leading the Blue team to a come-from-behind, 27-24 victory in Saturday's spring game at Robins Stadium.

Mancuso, a 2016 graduate of UCHS and two-time Region 8-AA Offensive Player of the Year, was responsible for 3 touchdowns over the final 16 minutes to rally his squad from a 17-7 deficit.

His final score came while trailing 24-20 with 28 seconds left in the game. That's when Mancuso hit Caleb Drake in the endzone for the game winning TD pass from five yards out.

A pair of Mancuso rushing scores gave Blue a 20-17 advantage with 9:45 to play before the White team answered with a touchdown at the 4:30 mark.

Mancuso finished with more than 100 yards passing, 50 yards rushing and 3 TDs while splitting time with other Spider signal callers.

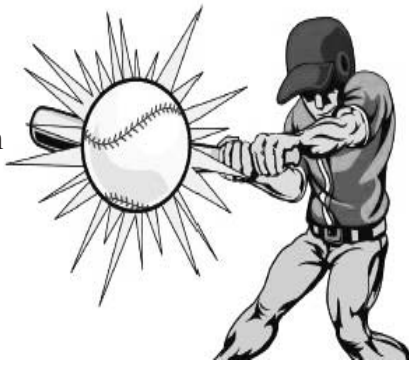

Richmond opens the 2017 season on Thursday, Aug. 31 at Sam Houston State in Huntsville, Tex.
